I have your letter of the 12th and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work as before. I have not had time to write much lately but I will try to do so in the future.

I have not heard from you for some time and I should like to hear from you again. I hope you are all well and happy.

I am, dear Mr. Hillman, your truly,
